Notice Opportunity to Cure

Dear Jason Kulas on March 4th 2023, at 9:59 am a letter was delivered to your address of business, with Attention to you. You were sent a tender of payment, instruction, a power of attorney and a copy of an endorsed bill. All these items were sent and addressed to you for your attention immediately to set off an account for the principal BRENNEN HURT. CFO Jason Kulas has yet to get back with me on the instructions you were given. I gave you 5 business days to complete a task or get back with me on why you aren't applying the instructions you were given. Ba advised Jason Kulas, I'm now sending a notice to cure.

This notice is to inform Jason kulas to apply the Principals account balance BRENNEN HURT to the ACCOUNT # 3758571 for set off. Again I will give you 5 days to cure and apply the instructions that are being sent again along with this notice for opportunity to cure. You have 5 business days to apply the instructions or write to me telling me why you refuse or choose not to fulfil your performance. I would like to know why in 5 business days. If I don't receive anything back in 5 business days, its assumed that you will be applying the instructions you were given.

I've also attached a copy of the federal reserve act section 29 part 1. Please go over the material, and reply in a timely manner. 5 days.

Federal Reserve Act

Section 29. Civil Money Penalty

(a) First Tier. Any member bank which, and any institution-affiliated party (within the meaning of section 3(u) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act) with respect to such member bank who, violates any provision of section 22, 23A, or 23B, or any regulation issued pursuant thereto, shall forfeit and pay a civil penalty of not more than $5,000 for each day during which such violation continues.

[12 USC 504(a). As added by act of Nov. 10, 1978 (92 Stat. 3641) and amended by acts of Oct. 15, 1982 (96 Stat. 1523) and Aug. 9, 1989 (103 Stat. 470).]

(b) Second Tier. Notwithstanding subsection (a), any member bank which, and any institution-affiliated party (within the meaning of section 3(u) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act) with respect to such member bank who

 - A. commits any violation described in subsection (a);
 - B. recklessly engages in an unsafe or unsound practice in conducting the affairs of such member bank; or
 - C. breaches any fiduciary duty;
2. which violation, practice, or breach--
 - A. is part of a pattern of misconduct;
 - B. causes or is likely to cause more than a minimal loss to such member bank; or
 - C. results in pecuniary gain or other benefit to such party, shall forfeit and pay a civil penalty of not more than $25,000 for each day during which such violation, practice, or breach continues.

[12 USC 504(b). As added by act of Nov. 10, 1978 (92 Stat. 3641) and amended by act of Aug. 9, 1989 (103 Stat. 470).]

(c) Third Tier. Notwithstanding subsections (a) and (b), any member bank which, and any institution-affiliated party (within the meaning of section 3(u) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act) with respect to such member bank who--

1. knowingly--
 - A. commits any violation described in subsection (a);
 - B. engages in any unsafe or unsound practice in conducting the affairs of such credit union; or
 - C. breaches any fiduciary duty; and
2. knowingly or recklessly causes a substantial loss to such credit union or a substantial pecuniary gain or other benefit to such party by reason of such violation, practice, or breach, shall forfeit and pay a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed the applicable maximum amount determined under subsection (d) for each day during which such violation, practice, or breach continues.
